

Changes to Gemini in 2015

In January Xserve initiated a major project, EU Code Change, in conjunction with the EU implementation programme to deliver the necessary changes to the Gemini and Gemini Exit systems. The design stage has now commenced, system build will begin in August and there will be an extensive testing programme, including more than three months of UAT, next year.

The external facing changes that Users will see have been identified from the detailed analysis and are listed in the following tables.
