SSE Energy Supply Ltd	Cher Harris	21/11/07	Accept	Yes	Option 2 only: xoserve's implementation is inconsistent with the design published to, and agreed by, the rest of the industry, so it is for xoserve to bear the costs of rectifying this problem – it is wholly inappropriate to ask the rest of the industry to change to match xoserve. This is a matter of principle and we are not happy to set a precedent of the wider industry being impacted when xoserve fail to implement a solution that is consistent with the agreed baseline.
