MB/826/MP – Uniform Network Code Non – Business Days 2008

Colleagues,

Since the release last year of the UK Link Non Business Days information for 2008, some of the references to the UNC document have been invalidated by alterations that have subsequently been made to the structure and content of UNC documentation. In light of these changes we have updated the UNC references in the text below, with the changes shown in red.

There have been no changes to the dates .

If you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact us via this email box account.

Kind Regards,
Max
