Subject : DM Elective Shipper Awareness Workshop

Colleague,
With the introduction UNC MOD 0224 – Facilitating the use of AMR in the Daily Metered Elective Regime, there are a number of activities that Shippers will be required to complete to manage a DM Elective sites (DME). xoserve has scheduled a DM Elective Shipper Awareness workshop for the 26th July 2010 to provide an overview of these activities and provide an opportunity to discuss any queries that you may have.

Please find attached the Aims & Objectives of the workshop.
<<DME Shipper Awareness Workshop External.pdf>>
xoserve recommends:

1. Attendance by all shippers that will be taking up the DME service
2. And those attendees that will be managing the day-to-day activities for DME site
3. Attendees not planning to participate in the DME regime are welcome to attend in order to understand the DME principles xoserve strongly recommends attendance at the DM Elective Awareness workshop and to register your interest please respond to the following email account: xoserve.dmelective@xoserve.com by 16th July 2010.

Please note that Onstream will be attending the workshop in their role as DMSP (Daily Meter Service Provider).

NOTE: To ensure that Shippers and their operational staff are aware of the DM Elective Shipper Awareness Workshop, we have sent this email out to multiple distribution lists, apologies if you have received it more than once.
