2.4 CDSP and the Committee

- 2.4.1 The CDSP may:
- (a) consult with the Committee in relation to any aspect of its functions under this Document, and may convene a meeting of the Committee for such purpose on reasonable notice; and
 - (b) invite the Committee to provide guidance on any question which arises in the operation of or the performance of the CDSP's obligations under this Document, and the CDSP will act in accordance with any guidance provided by the Committee.
- 2.4.2 Where the CDSP has reasonable grounds for wishing to consult with the Committee in relation to any step to be taken in accordance with this Document the CDSP may (where it has convened a meeting of the Committee) defer taking such step until it has consulted with the Committee.
- 2.4.3 Where the CDSP brings a matter to the Committee relating to a particular Customer, the CDSP will not disclose the identity of the Customer to the Committee unless:

- 2.4.5 No member of the Committee shall be liable (whether in contract, tort including negligence or otherwise) to the CDSP or any Customer for anything done when acting properly in connection with his office under the DSC, or anything done in what such member believes in good faith to be the proper exercise and discharge of the powers, duties, functions and discretions of that office in accordance with the DSC, and the CDSP and each Customer waives any such liability that any member may have and any claim in respect thereof.

2.5 Liability of the CDSP

- 2.5.1 Where the CDSP has reasonable grounds for believing that any calculation required to be made by it for the performance of its functions under this Document has been or may have been made erroneously, the CDSP may (but shall not be required to) defer the taking of any step that would otherwise be required under this Document until the CDSP has had a reasonable opportunity of verifying such calculation.
- 2.5.2 Without prejudice to paragraph 2.5.3, nothing in this Document shall require the CDSP to take any step which the CDSP believes on reasonable grounds may result in its becoming liable to any person in damages or otherwise, whether or not the amount of any such liability would be recoverable under paragraph 2.5.6, but the possibility of a claim being made against the CDSP shall not of itself suffice for the purposes of this paragraph unless the CDSP believes on reasonable grounds that such claim would be well founded.
- 2.5.3 Each Customer authorises the CDSP to take any step contemplated by this Document, and agrees that the CDSP shall have no liability (in contract or tort including negligence or otherwise) to such Customer for taking any such step, and waives any such liability that the CDSP may have and any claim in respect thereof.
- 2.5.4 Nothing in this Document shall require the CDSP to take any step which conflicts with any requirement of Law or any order of any court of competent jurisdiction.
- 2.5.5 The CDSP will act in good faith in implementing the provisions of this Document but will not be liable (in contract or tort including negligence or otherwise) to any Customer for any failure or delay of the CDSP in doing so or in taking any particular step contemplated by this Document, and each Customer waives any such liability that the CDSP may have and any claim in respect thereof.
- 2.5.6 Where any person makes any claim (in negligence or otherwise) against the CDSP in consequence of the CDSP taking any step contemplated by this Document:
- (a) the CDSP will defend such claim and will (subject to any duties of confidence) consult with and keep informed the Committee in relation to such claim and the defence thereof, provided the CDSP may, with the agreement of the Committee, seek to settle rather than defend such claim; and
 - (b) the fees, costs and expenses incurred by the CDSP (including its own internal costs and expenses) in defending such claim, and any amounts which the CDSP may be found liable (or with the approval of the Committee may agree by way of settlement) to pay by way of damages or costs or otherwise in respect of such claim, shall be recovered from Customers in accordance with the Budget and Charging Methodology.

2.6 Contact Details

3 DSC Credit Limit, DSC Security and DSC Indebtedness

3.1 General

3.1.1 The CDSP shall, in accordance with the DSC Credit Rules, determine and assign to each Customer a DSC Credit Limit, and will keep each Customer informed of its DSC Credit Limit (as revised in accordance with paragraph 3.2.1) for the time being.

3.1.2 The DSC Credit Rules are the rules from time to time established and revised by the CDSP and issued to Customers setting out (inter alia):

- (a) the principles on which the CDSP will assess and from time to time review (in accordance with paragraph 3.2.1) the creditworthiness of Customers (and persons providing security for Customers) and establish Unsecured DSC Credit Limits;
- (b) the specified forms and basis on which a Customer may provide DSC Security for DSC Indebtedness; and
- (c) procedures by which a Customer may discuss its DSC Credit Limit with the CDSP.

3.1.3 Subject to paragraph 3.1.6, and without prejudice to the express requirement under the Credit Policy to comply therewith, the DSC Credit Rules do not form part of and are not incorporated into the DSC.

3.1.4 With the approval of the Committee the CDSP may revise the DSC Credit Rules upon notice to all Customers of not less than two (2) months or such shorter period as in any particular case be approved by the Committee.

3.1.5 The CDSP will keep the DSC Credit Rules under review and the CDSP will discuss the DSC Credit Rules with the Committee at least once a year (or with such greater frequency as the Committee may require); and following any such review the CDSP shall revise the DSC Credit Rules where requested to make a revision by the Committee (unless the revision would put the CDSP in breach of Law or the DSC).

3.1.6 For the purposes only of enabling a Customer to propose a modification pursuant to the Modification Rules, the DSC Credit Rules shall be deemed to be incorporated into and form part of the DSC.

3.2 DSC Credit Limit

3.2.1 A Customer's DSC Credit Limit may be reviewed and revised from time to time in accordance with the DSC Credit Rules on not less than thirty (30) days' notice (or any lesser period agreed by the Customer) to the Customer:

- (a) at intervals of not less than twelve (12) months; and
- (b) where the review is requested by the Customer.

3.2.2 A Customer's DSC Credit Limit will be reviewed and may be revised immediately in accordance with the DSC Credit Rules:

- (a) where any Approved Credit Rating (or other published credit rating) is revised downwards;
- (b) where (without prejudice to any requirement in the DSC Credit Rules) any instrument of DSC Security expires or is determined;
- (c) following the appointment of any Supplier of Last Resort (as defined in TPD Section G2.1.7) by the Authority and TPD Section G2.18 applies, where the Customer is a Last Resort User (as defined in TPD Section G2.1.7); or
- (d) where the CDSP has reasonable grounds to believe that the effect of the review would be to reduce the Customer's DSC Unsecured Credit Limit.

3.2.3 The CDSP will not be required to agree to the request of a Customer under paragraph 3.2.1(b) unless the Customer agrees to reimburse the CDSP's reasonable costs and fees payable by the CDSP to any third party in connection with such request.

3.3 DSC Security

3.3.1 Where a Customer wishes to have a DSC Credit Limit which is in excess of its DSC Unsecured Credit Limit the Customer may provide one or more of the forms of DSC Security.

3.3.2 Where a Customer proposes that any DSC Security be provided not substantially in accordance with the DSC Credit Rules, the CDSP will convene a meeting of the Committee and table the Customer's proposal; and the CDSP will not be required to accept the Customer's proposal unless and until the Committee have approved such proposal.

3.3.3 A Customer who has provided DSC Security may request the CDSP to release such DSC Security (in whole or in part), and following such request, provided the requirements of paragraph 3.3.4 are satisfied, the CDSP will as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event within thirty (30) days after such request, comply with such request.

3.3.4 The requirement is that at the date two (2) Business Days before the date of release or reduction the amount of the Customer's DSC Indebtedness is less than the relevant percentage of the Customer's DSC Credit Limit specified in the DSC Credit Rules (as calculated after taking into account the proposed release or reduction of the DSC Security).

3.3.5 An instrument of DSC Security shall not form part of the DSC; and no provision or modification of the DSC, nor any inconsistency between the DSC and any such instrument, and nothing done by the CDSP pursuant to the DSC, shall prejudice or invalidate such instrument.

3.4 DSC Indebtedness

3.4.1 For the purposes of the Credit Policy and the DSC Credit Rules a Customer's DSC Indebtedness is:

- (a) the aggregate amount for which the Customer is liable to the CDSP pursuant to the DSC, determined on the basis of amounts accrued and irrespective of whether such amounts have been invoiced or (where invoiced) have become due for payment; less
- (b) any amount which has been paid to the CDSP by way of a prepayment, on the basis that the CDSP may apply such amount without the Customer's consent in or towards payment of amounts referred to in paragraph (a), and which has not yet been applied.

3.4.2 For the avoidance of doubt, the amount of a Customer's DSC Indebtedness shall be determined by the relevant provisions of the DSC Terms and Conditions, and nothing in such document shall be construed as withdrawing from a Customer the right to dispute whether the CDSP has correctly calculated such amount in any case, or from the CDSP the right to dispute the validity of any query submitted by any Customer.

3.5 Credit risk management by the CDSP

3.5.1 Where a Customer's DSC Indebtedness:

- (a) exceeds the relevant percentage of the Customer's DSC Credit Limit as specified in the DSC Credit Rules, the CDSP shall give the Customer such notice as specified in the DSC Credit Rules to that effect; and
- (b) following notice under paragraph (a), exceeds the relevant percentage of the Customer's DSC Credit Limit as specified in the DSC Credit Rules, the CDSP will notify the Customer to such effect and request the Customer to provide additional DSC Security in such amount as required to reduce the Customer's DSC Indebtedness to below the relevant percentage of the Customer's DSC Credit Limit.

3.5.2 Without prejudice to paragraph 3.5.3, where a Customer fails to provide additional DSC Security where requested by the CDSP by the date specified in the CDSP's notice under paragraph 3.5.1:

3.5.3 Subject to paragraph 3.5.1, where and for as long as the defaulting Customer's DSC Indebtedness for the time being exceeds 100% of the Customer's DSC Credit Limit, the CDSP may convene a meeting of the Committee and the Committee may direct the CDSP to give a Credit Default Notice to the defaulting Customer in which case the CDSP will send a Credit Default Notice to the defaulting Customer, with a copy to:
